

Materials Selection/Collection Development Policy

Policy Statement

This policy informs the community of the principles in accordance with the library's mission and identified roles that guide collection development and establish the criteria for the selection of library materials.

Regulations

1. The goal of selection is to provide collections that meet the informational, educational and recreational needs of the patrons in the library's service area.
2. The library upholds the following principles of service:
  - A. Provide open, free, non-judgmental access to collections and services regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, disability, language proficiency, and social or economic status.
  - B. Support intellectual freedom and promote the dissemination of a wide range of ideas and information representing a variety of viewpoints.
  - C. Create an inviting environment with a broad selection of timely materials that encourages patrons to encounter the rich diversity of ideas upon which our democratic society depends.
3. The scope of the collections encompasses materials with popular, contemporary appeal as well as those with permanent, historical value in a wide variety of formats from print to digital.
4. Selection of all materials shall be the responsibility of the library director who operates within the framework of policies determined by the Library Board of Trustees. Under the director's guidance, staff with professional education and training selects materials in accordance with state law and the principles and practices of collection development.<sup>1</sup>
5. There are general criteria of quality of content, and suitability and sustainability of format, taken into consideration for selections; however, each item within the collection is given individual

---

<sup>1</sup> MCL 397.605 et seq. Library Privacy Act
Brandon Township Public Library Policies

Materials Selection/Collection Development Policy

- consideration for selection in terms of its own merit, demand, popularity and the audience for whom it is intended.
6. The library monitors advances in print and digital publishing, as well as future trends and the emergence of new formats, and adjusts the emphasis within collections to reflect the changing times.
  7. The library acquires materials in a number of ways.
    - A. Identifies materials for potential purchase through print and digital selections and reviewed titles in professional journals.
    - B. Elects to automatically purchase periodic new editions of specific titles and the newly published titles from authors with perennial appeal.
    - C. Accepts gift donations of materials which meet the same criteria as purchased materials.
    - D. Accepts commemorative requests that are identified with a commemorative bookplate, and integrated into the appropriate collection.
    - E. Provides the opportunity for resident patrons with a valid Brandon Township Public Library card to request purchase of materials not owned by the library through the Recommend a Title form.
  8. The library attempts to collect materials on a wide range of subjects but may be unable to meet every need with on-site materials.
    - A. Duplication of titles is essential in meeting the public demand for best-sellers and other heavily used materials. The library does not duplicate every title, however, nor can it duplicate specific popular titles in sufficient quantities to fill every request immediately given budget constraints and the necessity of meeting other collections needs.
    - B. The library participates in consortia and networks to obtain access to information sources and services it cannot provide on its own. As part of these services, patrons can borrow materials from other libraries to fulfill their information needs.
  9. The library does not purchase academic textbooks because, generally, students need textbooks for a lengthy period of time that would exceed the library's loan and renewal periods.

Materials Selection/Collection Development Policy

10. The library keeps its collections vital and useful by retaining and replacing essential materials, and by removing on a systematic and continuous basis those works that are worn, outdated, of little historical significance, or no longer in demand.
11. The library selects materials and organizes its collection to facilitate patrons in making choices about the materials that are appropriate for them.
  - A. The library purchases rated feature films whenever possible.
  - B. The library distinguishes its youth collections by age-appropriate levels.